

2007 News

The 2007 Kidsquash Tournament

What is thrilling to watch, rather sweaty -- and has 48 lightning-fast feet?
It's a Kidsquash Tournament!

Four girls and twenty boys, aged 8 to 16 years, competed in the 2007 Kidsquash Tournament at Harvard University's Murr Center on April 7, 2007 from 10:30am to 3:30pm. Many relatives and friends came to witness the fun and were swept up in the day's excitement and camaraderie. Everyone had a wonderful day.

Winners (W) and runners-up (R) included:

Group A: Emiliano Calvo (W) and Parker Tonissi (R)

Group B: Eli Selva (W) and Augustin Towle (R)

Group C: Dong Yifu (W) with Leo Weissburg (R)

Group D: Adam Goughrabou (W) with Sophia Goldfarb (R)

Special awards were presented to six children. Peter Alagna (boys) and Grace Andersen (girls) received the "Sportsmanship" award. Andrew Wheeler (boys) and Cece Lesnick (girls) received the "Most Improved" award; and Amir Ahmed (boys) and Susannah Shipton (girls) received the "Most Enthusiastic" award.